Elon Rating: 3 31-10-2014 Ad I had installed the "free trial" version and I liked it, but not as much as MSN Messenger.
Titus Rating: 4 13-10-2014 Ad The free version of Cute Web Messenger is not the same as the paid version. The free version does not show the profiles, the backgrounds of the chat rooms. But the paid version can do all this things, it shows the profiles of the people who use the messenger.

The keymacro module allows an unlimited number of each users to interact with each other. Each user can have a list of up to 30 custom url's to activate. Keymacro is a simple, and totally web-based keylogger. You can include it on any website, and any number of users can log in to it using their own email accounts. Each user can have up to 30 different custom urls to execute. Each custom url can be completely customized and it can include any javascript code you want it to execute. You can also include more than one user name in each url. In other words, each user can have a list of custom urls with all of his/her user names. It is then really easy to add multiple users to the keymacro module. Each user can choose his/her own look and feel. Features: ☐ Can send an unlimited number of custom urls to the users of keymacro. ☐ Is web based, no installer needed. ☐ Is completely customizable. Users can choose their own look and feel. ☐ Each user can send more than one url to the module. The email addresses can be entered up to 30 different times, each with its own url. ☐ Each url can be completely customized, including javascript codes that can be run on the users browser. Limitations: ☐ Only an unlimited number of users can be logged into the module. ☐ The users of keymacro can choose a different look and feel for the module. ☐ Each user can only have 30 urls
Installation: Install the latest version of either the Express or Simple Edition from the website: Make sure you select the right type of license, you can either use one of the limited trial licenses or you can buy a license for unlimited users. Features: Have your customers enter their email address, the url of the page that you want them to visit, and the url that you want them to visit. If they enter the correct email address and url, they will be automatically logged into keymacro. You can even have them give you their full name, if you so desire. When they visit that url, they will be logged into keymacro. Keymacro is very simple, but it is very useful. Have customers enter their email 77a5ca646e
