Content ELDEN RING Story: Game Content Hero My name is Eudora Hayworth, an apprentice Seeker of the Elden Ring, and I am rising in a humble village called Arbury. Yet all I do now is to rest and enjoy the simple life, leaving my destiny to the fate of the Elden Ring. One day, I was ordered to accompany a small party of Seekers on a mission to investigate a newly discovered source of an Elden ring. We encounter on our way a man named Armaments, who tried to attack us with his own party. We followed him and, after a long journey, we came across the man and his two partners who were sealed in a powerful fortress. This fortress is located in the Lands Between and has as its lord a man named Niall. Niall was sealed for his crimes against the realm by an ancient spell, and he now uses his skills and talismans to raise a massive demon army that he has been developing for decades now. His plan is to conquer the realms of the various Elven nations, and then use the united Elden Ring power to challenge the Elden King. Only a God can break the spell and free Niall, so he send the three partners into an alternate reality, called the Amulet, with the Demon Army to give them strength. When I went to that world, I found that I was the only Seeker left in our world, with no clue why I could not return home. I kept on exploring but I ran into the man who transported me, and I accompanied him. He told me to steal the Amulet, but I could not do it, as I did not know the proper ritual for it. Instead, I gained the Amulet and I left the Amulet, returned to the new world, and met the man who brought me there. I was told by him to retrieve the last piece of the Amulet. I went back to the man and stole the third piece from him. But in the place where the man said the piece was, there was a dark alley, where a man came out and stabbed me with a blade. I fell into the darkness and I woke up in a jail cell. My blade was there, and I also had the third piece of the Amulet. The Lord said that the fourth piece of the Amulet was in the hands of an Elden Lord named Erram, who lives in the Auroa kingdom of the Lands Between. Er
