The main problem I have is getting the Ilok 2s working. The Mac Pro I'm using is a old model so I need the 1s to work. However, it requires the 2s to make the instructions in the software manual work. Here is the video tutorial: If you have a license then you can do the following: If you have a cracked version then follow instructions below: Using the Ilok 2s: First thing's first - get the Ilok 1s and the Ilok 2s. If you already have them you can skip this section and it will work for all versions. There are 2 versions of the Ilok 2s available. The first one costs $90 and the other is $230. You can order them online or you can buy them at the Apple store. The Ilok 2s is a small box that looks like this: (View Image) To activate your license just insert it into the Ilok 2 and it will automatically connect to the rest of the software. The Ilok 2s will only work in combination with the Ilok 1s which you will get later. To activate the Ilok 1s you need the Ilok authorization software which you can download here.
