QuranTrans is a multi-lingual translation of the Holy Quran. This is a community driven translation with material available for nearly every Verse of Holy Quran. QuranTrans is a tool which allows any Muslim to read the Quran in any given language. Material for translation is available in nearly every language. This includes material from modern dictionaries and commentaries as well as material from classical Arabic dictionaries like Ibn Maajah's and Jalalayn's. The community of translators includes scholars, ordinary people, professors and students alike. There is a main team that is based out of Turkey along with community members from other countries like Indonesia, USA, Philippines, Australia and more. Therefore, it is a richly diverse representation of human effort and diversity of thought. But all this diversity is put together in this free online application to make one of the best free translation of the Quran in any given language. Translations are not the final product but only one step in a process which should lead to the proper understanding of the Arabic language. For instance, Quran could be translated into Persian by some future generation but it would be a very limited exercise because of numerous restrictions on literacy during ancient times. Similarly, a literal translation of the Quran into English will not be able to convey the message of the Quran because of the vast difference in the state of understanding between the language of the Quran and the English language. Benefits of using translation: ? It is a free service! ? It is easy! ? It is educational! ? It is a gateway to the world of the Quran. ? It is easy to download! ? It is easy to access! ?
