The latest release of the Microsoft Office software is a huge update.. So keep the document you just made. It looks as though the person at the left just called out the strongest words to a woman who can only respond in contempt. The person at the left has reacted to that woman in ways that are not only vulgar, but that are grounded in zero understanding of anything. What's more, what the person at the left has just written is not good advice at all. If you go to all the trouble of showing a woman the email that arrived from the donor with your name on it, that's your business. I have been in the context of that business, where I've helped to raise hundreds of thousands of dollars for women struggling with breast cancer, and very few other women have ever had that opportunity, and it's an experience that's forever indelible. But I would add a note that I think is almost always a good idea: when women who have nothing to do with you try to needle you into self-abnegation, you should ignore them. If you ignore them, that tells them they are the outsiders, and if they want to waste their time or theirs, they have a right to. And, some of them will still take you to task. But, in most cases, you should ignore them, and you should ignore the people who are telling you about your future. But, here's a comment on the article itself: don't worry about that bitch, I'm damn sure she'll be happy about her extra 1000 just like her manservant who went for 130K in like 6 months with no investment whatsoever. 6d1f23a050
