More than a decade after he disappeared after his car crashed on the way to a remote location, a man has been found alive but was in the zone. Jeff Weston was last seen leaving the bar he worked at with his co-worker in Port Coquitlam, B.C. on July 24, 2008. The pair's car was found in the woods outside the small fishing village of Saint Andrews. Weston had been a frequent visitor to the village for the last 10 years, which meant he knew the area well. The two friends had gone for a
